Get Involved in the Sensor Technology Cluster

Are you a company, research institution or a person interested in the development and use of sensor-based technology solutions from Bavaria? Discover the diversity of safe, intelligent, sensor-based concepts in the Sensor Technology Cluster – in a practical, environmentally conscious and user-friendly way.

Free of Charge for You

- Specialist forums on current R&D activities: Establish valuable contacts with industry players, new cooperation partners and customers.
- Technology and trend scouting: Together, we identify relevant technology trends across industry boundaries and initiate new collaborations.
- Hands-on knowledge transfer: We develop smart solutions with you in technology sprints.
- We are in frequent contact with political players and pass on recommendations for action.
- We are a mouthpiece to other companies, industries and international players. We represent your expertise at trade fairs, congresses and delegation trips.
- We keep you informed about relevant developments, cooperations and activities in the industry in our blog and in the monthly sensor technology magazine.
- You can post your job vacancies on our JobWall.
