

More Than Just a Regional Network:
The Core of the Bavarian
Sensor Technology Ecosystem.

Sensors and measurement technology are “enabling technologies” – the driving force behind the potential of technological efficiency is people. Interlinking their skills and smart organizations across company, cluster and industry boundaries and making them visible is the operational and strategic focus of our activities – this is more than just networking.

What Sets Us Apart?

- Smart people for smart technology: together we develop and realize smart, sustainable and trustworthy sensor technology
- Comprehensive thinking: offers for the development of “people – technology – organization”
- “From the sensor to the cloud”: expertise along the data value chain
- Learning from and with each other at eye level: sharing expertise and knowledge from operational practice in a familiar setting
- Accessibility: short distances for joint long-term success
- Regional expertise becomes internationally visible

Why Is a Membership in the Strategic Partnership for Sensor Technology e.V. Beneficial for You?

- We Keep an Eye on the Future Together
In personal discussions we regularly identify with you your need for support as well as cooperation partners in technology and HR. We take up technologies and trends in projects across industries and regions.
- We Offer You Additional Resources
As a member, you can take advantage of our training opportunities. Our team of experts also designs and implements individual technology events, in-house exhibitions, in-house training and innovation workshops for you. Present your open positions on our JobWall.
- We Increase Your Visibility
We report on your products and services in the sensor technology magazine, on a daily basis in our blog and on social media. We represent you at industry meetings, delegation trips, university and career fairs.
- We Offer R&D Know-How
You receive discounted conditions at Sensorik-Bayern GmbH – our joint R&D department for the Bavarian sensor technology ecosystem.

More Than Just a Regional Network: The Core of the Bavarian Sensor Technology Ecosystem.

Become part of Bavarian sensor network's core. Together with over 80 highly innovative members and players from the fields of science, research, development and vocational training, you will actively shape Bavaria's progress and future. As a member of the Strategic Partnership for Sensor Technology, you benefit from exclusive services and discounted conditions.

Become a member

In our team, network know-how meets high-tech expertise. Our wholly-owned subsidiary, Sensorik-Bayern GmbH, supports you as a research partner and development service provider in the areas of Industrial IoT (IIoT), application-specific sensor systems, blockchain and bionics.
